

3rd Newsletter

ouRouters were busy and have several updates for you! Key milestones are wrapped-up in this 3rd newsletter. Want to find more? Contact us or visit our website

Culture and collective identity

How can culture influence the construction of our identity? Partners in ouRoute interviewed different stakeholders from the cultural sector to investigate projects and initiatives, as part of the "ouRoute collection of good practices", which promote Cultural Heritage and active involvement of local communities...

OuRoute teachers training was a success!

The organization of a train-the-trainer course for staff which targeted teachers and focused on how to engage and support students in film editing and production activities (writing, shooting, editing...). This training was closely related to the project core topics (common values, immaterial heritage, cultural ambassadors, social inclusion) and to the results of their previous research, linked to landscape mapping and defining a common strategy...

Let's explore the ancient crafts!

OuRoute students are diving in traditional crafts! Cultural heritage is not fixed but evolves over time, based on the development of a territory, its characteristics, its people. It is a strong and unique sign of identity that can also foster a sense of community by bringing people together in a common set of experiences. For that purpose, students from Italy, Spain and Portugal are interviewing local craftsmen, ...
